

Baylor honors two local businesses

United Supermarkets of Lubbock will receive the Large Family Business of the Year award Nov. 5 from the Baylor University Institute for Family Business. The award program, now in its 20th year, honors companies whose families demonstrate a commitment to each other and are responsive to the needs of employees, their communities and their industries.

Armstrong Mechanical of Lubbock was named as a finalist in this year's competition.

